Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is classified as objectionable because it promotes and encourages criminal acts relating to intimate visual recordings (these are specific offences in the Crimes Act 1961) to such an extent and degree, and in such a manner, that its availability is likely to be injurious to the public good. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, but this is a reasonable and justified limitation on that right, given the high risk of injury to the public good.
